

From: Jason File
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 1:28pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I am writing to complain that at present, the negotiated settlement does not permit software developers such as the Wine project to create the capability of running Windows applications on Linux. Only with this component included in the agreement will the settlement have a real effect on market competition. As it stands now, it is relatively toothless.

Best wishes,
Jason File
Yale Law School